About the group:

The Manipur Artist collective is a 38-year-old performing arts group with expertise in traditional and fusion arts, and is an important centre of Manipur music and theatre. Additionally, they have performed in several countries including Singapore, Japan, Vietnam, Trinidad and Hong Kong. The troupe consists of 8 to 12 women academically qualified and skilled artists who use the traditional biodegradable drum to showcase cultural nuances of Northeast India.

The vibrant artist group has has nil revenue from the last 4 months due to ethnic clashes and needs to be re-deemed immediately to prevent it from dissolution.
